

MOUNTAIN BLANCO - MUSCAT SEC

PRODUIT

Mountain Blanco is produced by one of Spain's most brilliant winemakers, Telmo Rodríguez, from 100% dried Moscatel grapes. The vines are cultivated at high altitudes (between 500 and 1,000 meters) using sustainable farming methods. This region, located between the snow-capped Sierra Nevada mountains and the Mediterranean, produces some of the rarest Muscats in the world. The grapes are harvested exclusively by hand. The nose is exceptional, with aromas of juicy fruit, nectarine, and honey. On the palate, the attack is round but elegant, with fine acidity that brings tension to the wine. Perfect with seafood and shellfish.
